

Introduction to Agricultural Sciences

CAREER ROUND ROBIN!

Name _____ Date _____

You will receive a poster (be careful with it!) describing a career in agricultural sciences. Your task is to go around the room and “interview” NINE other people about the career they have, and tell them about your career. Fill out this activity sheet as you go around. You may not sit. HAVE FUN!

My Career: _____

One sentence description of what I do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should I take in high school? _____

First Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Second Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Third Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Fourth Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Fifth Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Sixth Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Seventh Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Eighth Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____

Ninth Interview: _____

One sentence description of what they do: _____

What does it take to become this career? _____

What classes should you take in high school? _____